MAT MAGUIRE STILL ALIVE.

He Comes to Town and is Informed of His Own Death.
Matthew Maguire, the old-time agitator and first Secretary of the Central Labor Union, who was reported as having died more than a year ago, is still alive.
He appeared in this city Saturday, visiting several of his former fellow-workers. He was astonished to hear that his obituary had been published in the papers.
Maguire has retired from agitation altogether and does not read the papers, he says, as he is disgusted with everything. He works at his trade of machinist in Paterson, N. J.

TEN DAYS OF LIFE, ANYHOW.

John O'Brian Sent Up for Threatening Suicide.
John O'Brian, who said he had no home, was arraigned in the Essex Market Police Court this morning, suffering from the effects of a protracted spree.
He was arrested at 5.30 yesterday afternoon at the Houston street ferry. He had said that he intended to commit suicide, and Policemen had caught him just as he was going to jump into the river waters.
O'Brian claimed that he didn't know what he was doing. He was sent to the island for ten days.

CORRIGAN SAYS NOTHING.

Will Not Discuss Alleged Charges by Archbishop Ireland.
Archbishop Corrigan would not be seen by reporters at his home today, but it was said at the archiepiscopal mansion that he would adhere to his announced determination not to discuss the alleged charges against him. He said to have been forwarded to the Holy See by Archbishop Ireland until he was officially notified of their decision.
The report that such charges had been preferred is generally disbelieved in Catholic circles.

Held in $900 for Grand Larceny.

Charles Steinhart was arraigned today before Recorder McDonough, in Hoboken, charged with grand larceny. He formerly boarded with the family of George Miller, a carpenter of Jersey City. Miller was killed while at work in Hoboken last November, and Steinhart pretended to raise a fund for the benefit of Mrs. Miller and her children. Steinhart, it is alleged, collected $40 and gave Mrs. Miller but $17. Steinhart was released in $900 bail to await trial.

Escorted Back to Sing Sing.

Oscar Murphy, alias Edward Williams, who was convicted of robbing a jewelry store in Long Island City, and who escaped from the Queens County Court-room after he had been sentenced to three years and ten months in the State Prison, was taken to Sing Sing this morning by Sheriff Norton. Murphy was recaptured recently by the New York police.

SNOW ON FIFTH AVENUE.

Brennan Begged to Remove It and to Let It Alone.
To remove or not to remove the snow on Fifth Avenue. That is the problem that confronts Street-Cleaning Commissioner Brennan, and apparently it is not an easy one to solve.
Mr. Brennan is in no end of a dilemma. The wealthy residents and tax-payers on Fifth Avenue who own sleighs do not want the snow cleared away, because it makes good sleighing, and have requested Mr. Brennan to let it remain.
Other wealthy residents and tax-payers, who do not own sleighs, have asked Mr. Brennan why he thunders or words to that effect—why he does not do his duty and take the snow away as he promised he would. Why Fifth Avenue does not receive as much attention as Broadway, and as promptly? And if Mr. Brennan is discriminating in favor of the Broadway merchants against the Fifth Avenue residents and tax-payers?

These and scores of similar questions have made Mr. Brennan think that the lot of a street-cleaning Commissioner is a hard one. If the Commissioner removes the snow he will incur the displeasure of the sleigh owners; if he does not remove it he will offend the ladies, and they will make life burdensome for him by their continual and vociferous complaints.
Mr. Brennan trusts in Providence to get him out of the difficulty. Providence has come to his assistance before, by washing the streets for him with rain when they were dirty and people loved about their condition, and he hopes now that Providence will send along a storm to melt the snow.

ABANDONED HER BABY.

Rosina Ross Left the Child with a Poor Woman.
Mrs. Maria Montefant, a poor woman living at 121 Elizabeth street, took a year and a half old baby to the Tombs Police Court this morning and told Justice McMahon that it had been left with her last Friday by a woman named Rosina Ross, who lives somewhere in James street.
The woman had failed to return for the child and Mrs. Montefant said she was unable to care for it, as it was very sickly. The child was committed to the care of the Commissioners of Charities and Correction. The mother cannot be found.

Only One Excuse Arrest Held.

The police of the downtown precincts made a large number of arrests for alleged violation of the excise yesterday, but when the prisoners were arraigned in the Tombs Police Court today Justice McMahon dismissed the cases of all except that of Oscar Herr, of 127 West street, who was held in $100 bail for trial.

TO DISCHARGE THEIR UNION MEN.

Other Railroads Decide to Follow the Pennsylvania's Example.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 8.—The management of the Vandalia road has determined to follow the example of the Pennsylvania and discharge all freight-handlers who refuse to leave the unions.

D. F. Kennedy, Chairman of the Grievance Committee, said that City Freight Agent Perrin, who discharged the men yesterday, is authorized for the statement that the other roads had agreed to pursue a similar policy, and that a determined stand is to be made against every class of organized labor.

The unionists refuse to say what policy will be adopted. Meetings have been called to consider the matter.

Only One Excuse Arrest Held.
The police of the downtown precincts made a large number of arrests for alleged violation of the excise yesterday, but when the prisoners were arraigned in the Tombs Police Court today Justice McMahon dismissed the cases of all except that of Oscar Herr, of 127 West street, who was held in $100 bail for trial.

NEW CITY HALL SITE.

Municipal Building Commission to Select It Wednesday.

Mayor Gilroy has called a meeting of the Municipal Building Commission for Wednesday at 10 o'clock in the Mayor's office, for the purpose of selecting a site for the new city hall.

It is understood that the Commission favor City Hall Park, either on the site of the present City Hall or the northeast corner of the park, with a frontage on Third Row and Chambers street. The members of the Commission are the Mayor, the County Clerk, the Register, the Comptroller, the Recorder and the Commissioner of Public Works.

In his message to the Board of Aldermen last week Mayor Gilroy declared in favor of City Hall Park for a site.
